

Utilizing the Strengths of Your Team

Alia Stowers
Greene County Huddle

What is a strength?

Image courtesy of marin @ freedigitalphotos.net

We're all wired differently

When we all use our strengths...

Image courtesy of Stuart Miles @ freedigitalphotos.net

Team Do's & Don'ts:

DON'T

- Disregard different perspectives
- Show disrespect
- Complain outside of the team
- Let insecurity (jealousy, bitterness) affect you

DO

- Recognize value of different thoughts
- Golden Rule
- Focus on unity once a decision is made
- Know: a team wins or loses together. If one wins, we all win. If one loses, we all lose.

Teams can be fun!

Image courtesy of Ambro @ freedigitalphotos.net

Recommended resources:

- Team:

- The Five Dysfunctions of a Team by Patrick Lencioni
- X-Teams by Deborah Ancona

- Identifying Strengths:

- Now, Discover Your Strengths by Marcus Buckingham
- StrengthsFinder 2.0 by Gallup ($9.99 each)

- Faith-based:

- The Culture of Honor by Danny Silk
- Incomplete by Design by Steve Wilson

Questions?